And We All Shine On...

We have all experienced moments during high school when the spotlight was shining on us. Whether it be on the football field, on stage or on television, we have felt that indescribable emotion of pride as all eyes watched us score the winning point, play a solo, or receive an award. And we savor that moment of glory for all it is worth.

As the best four years of our lives come to a close and we cross the stage to receive our diplomas, we reflect on these highlights. We remember all the wonderful memories that we have shared with each other over the years as we look ahead to the future. The sound of applause, the cheers from the crowd and the standing ovations all replay in our minds. For an instant, that feeling surrounds us once again.

With mixed emotions, we leave the familiar halls of Billerica Memorial High School to follow our own separate paths and to accomplish the dreams we have held for so long. Some of us will immediately enter the work force or armed forces while others continue to further their education. However, we will all strive to leave a mark on the world. But most of all, we will try to rekindle that spark we experienced during high school, that brief shining moment when everything was just perfect.

Graduation is our moment in the sun. And no matter what the future holds for us, we will all shine on.

LIKE THE MOON AND THE STARS

The waterfront scene was set perfectly as limos lined up in front of the Castleton in Windham, New Hampshire. The swarm of dresses and tuxedos promenaded into the building hoping to fulfill their expectations for April 28, 1995. The crazy line for pictures decreased and the waitresses appeared. Almost everyone enjoyed the food and began to take their chances at dancing around the tables. Finally, the real music started and the sombreros and maracas circulated. Nerves, tux jackets, and the occasional pair of shoes disappeared, and the seats quickly became vacant. There was a pause on the dance floor briefly as the prom queen and king, Erin Pendergast, and date, took the floor. As everybody gathered their jackets and shoes once again, Billy Joel's words echoed in their heads: "These are the times to remember."

The Spark!

Our last pep rally opened with enthusiasm as the BMHS football cheerleaders, headed by Verity Colon and Shannon Ferreira, were the focus of attention at center court. I guess you could say we behaved most during this, our senior year. We avoided being hit by chicken feces, but do you remember those few choice potatoes?

Ms. Oullette rallied the crowd for the football player's benefit. On this day before Thanksgiving the four classes of Billerica High assembled under one united cause-VICTORY!

Each team's captains gave a brief synopsis of their success, then wished their best to the raging Indians. After hearing about swimming and volleyball, cross country, golf, and soccer, the crowd was ready for the annual promises of Coach Flynn and his captains.

Coach Flynn seemed optimistic but not as much as in the past. He held his head high but who would have ever believed that this year would be the one. The first time Billerica trampled Chelmsford in who knows how long. Rich McKenna and Garrett McKinnon gave reasons why tomorrow would be the day, but Peter Calabrese instilled the most excitement that day in the Memorial gym. He professed his theory of no mercy: "Tomorrow when they're down I'll kick 'em... and kick 'em again. When they're down... and ask me to stop-I'll kick 'em again!" Simple, but most effective! Congratulations!

The Billerica High football team had a remarkable season. The Indians topped off an 8-2 season with a dominating 27-6 victory over Chelmsford on Thanksgiving Day. This victory sealed the Indians' second place finish in the strong Merrimac Valley Conference.

This year's team's biggest asset was its seniors. Led by captains Peter Calabrese, Garret McKinnon, and Rich McKenna, the Indians had one of their most successful seasons in recent memory and set a standard for future teams.

Sleep over

On Saturday, October, 28, 1996, the Class of 1996 was up all night at this year's Senior Sleepover held in the cafeteria. Our class was entertained with the omniscient insight of the palm reader and brought to hysterics with the antics of the guest hypnotist Seniors laughed to their friends' best imitations of their favorite songs on the karaoke machine. They were also intensely determined during the midnight Bingo games. Some retired to bed shortly after, but there were those who did their best at keeping everyone awake. All in all, it was a great event for all of those in attendance.

SENIORS
Class of 1996

A time that we all never thought would come has finally arrived. For three long years we waited in anticipation for that day when we would become seniors. However, when that day was presented to us, we felt that it had come too fast. We wanted to slow down, to remain with the faces that we all knew and loved. High school had become a comfortable place, one that we were not so sure we were ready to give up. As we received our diplomas there was a sense of unity with everyone—with the people you loved, with some that you did not know or with some that you were just indifferent to. All of these people now hold some place in your memory. These are the people with whom you spent the four most exciting years of your life.

Senior year was a time of fun, happiness, sadness and, most of all, memories. As you look through the senior section, people who have begun to fade from your memory will come rushing back. It could be the person who sat next to you in math class, your prom date, or the kid whose locker was near yours. Each picture represents a ray of light that lets us shine on together, even though we may be miles apart. As we view these pictures we will regain the sense of togetherness that we once had and remain that shines on forever.

In Memoriam Christopher Eastman

"When I Must Leave You"
by Helen Steiner Rice

When I must leave you
for a little while
Please do not grieve and shed wild tears and hug your sorrow to you through the years,
But start out bravely with a gallant smile;
And for my sake and in my name
live on and do all things the same.
Feed not your loneliness on empty days,
but fill each waking hour in useful ways.
Reach out your hand
in comfort and cheer and I in turn will comfort you and hold you near.
And never, never be afraid to die,
for I am waiting for you in the sky!

In loving memory of Chris Eastman

In Memoriam
Verity Colon

A ray of sunshine, the sparkle of a star.
Her smile lives inside us all.
The sweet smell of a flower, the freedom of a butterfly.
Her beautiful face will never be forgotten.
The colors of the rainbow, the feeling of a summer breeze.
We are lucky to have known her.
A gift from Heaven, an angel of Earth.
She has returned to her home.
We hold her in our hearts, treasure all the memories.
We love her always, forever.

In loving memory of Verity Colon

BMHS FACULTY

Teaching lessons, Teaching lives

"To teach is to touch a life forever." These words ring true in the halls of BMHS. From the moment we started at this school, our teachers saw something special inside every one of us. They saw the way we sparkled as freshmen and they recognized our talents. By the time we were seniors they had made it possible for us to shine, like the stars in the sky. They have left lasting impressions on all aspects of our lives. Thanks to them we can solve for x and y, we have mastered square dancing, and foreign languages are not so foreign. They believed in us and taught us to believe in ourselves. They have been called teachers, educators, and mentors. We call them friends.

and we all shine on

To the Members of the Class of 1996:

The future is yours. It will be filled with boundless opportunities and the independence of adult life. But, with the future comes the uncertainties. Will society meet the challenges ahead? How will you measure yourself to these challenges?

The positives will outweigh the problems. Keep the winning spirit and the attitudes of success. I know you will be a credit to yourselves, your families, and to the Town of Billerica.

I join with the Billerica School Committee in congratulating each and every one of the Class of 1996. May your future be filled with happiness and achievement.

Sincerely,

Dear Graduates,

Your graduation was wonderful! Congratulations, and thank you for your efforts to succeed and for your modeling of all that we hold important in our school community.

I am sure that by now you realize that success is measured not only in achievements, but in lessons learned, lives touched, and moments shared with other people along the way. I hope that in your futures, you will continue to seek lifetimes of new experiences that will enrich your appreciation of love and support in human lives and will lead you toward contributing your share toward making the world a better place for all mankind.

On behalf of all of the BMHS faculty, congratulations. Please keep our school community in your thoughts.

Best wishes,

Billerica High's Unsung Heroes

They may not be the top scorers on the team or the smartest, most outspoken student in the class, but they are talented, giving, motivated, and most of all, humble. These eleven outstanding students are recognized for their principles and their achievements in school and in the community that few people may know about. Their accomplishments vary, but they all have put an incredible amount of time and effort in their sports and activities. They are not afraid to be different, push limits, or take risks. They set the standards that their classmates admire and try to match, but never quite reach. While they may not have been in the spotlight in high school, their deeds shine on.

Robert Esplin

He doesn't say much, but his accomplishments speak for themselves. Robert Esplin has been active in school and the community throughout high school. Besides his participation in the Environmental Club, Bob has also contributed much of his time to establishing a Home Page for the Billerica Public School System on the High School Internet, which anyone can access via their computers. At his church, he is in charge of organizing activities for his age group and assists in the weekly services. However, Bob is most proud of his skills he has learned and volunteer work he has done as an Eagle Scout. In his eight years in the Boy Scouts he has earned a total of thirty merit badges. Very few of his fellow classmates know about this side of Bob; They simply admire him as a "strong moral person who stands up for his beliefs" and for the manner in which he stands by his principles. He is truly an unsung hero.

Cassandra Thornton

When you think of BMHS athletics, what immediately comes to mind? Tommy Glavine? Mike Mastrullo and the 1993 Superbowl victory? Maybe the hockey team or the girls soccer team. . . but the track team?! Their talent, abilities, and sportmanship are as good as any other team, but probably not as recognized. Cassandra Thornton has done much to change that.

With her uncomparable sprinting and rapid hurtling, Cassandra is probably one of the best track stars in Billerica history. Many people are unaware of u the fact that she has beaten numerous school records. The quality that her teammates believe truly makes her a hero is her strong will and determination. Even a rare defeat does not stop Cassandra from soaring ever forward. She says, "I could have beaten her" with the strength and determination that makes her such a great runner.

Cassandra does not limit her abilities to the high school. She has been known to run for other local teams. She also participates in many meets like the Hershey Track Meet. She plans to continue shining on the track when she continues her brilliant track career at Northeastern College.

Brian Morgan

According to Brian Morgan, there are two types of leaders at the high school: leaders within the school and leaders in the community. Although Brian has participated in numerous school activities like the musical, peer leadership, and SADD, his community activities could fill pages and pages. Completely unselfish and giving, Brian says the most influential thing in his life has been boy scouting. His goal has been to give back to scouting what it has given to him.

He has done just that. An Eagle Scout Éby the time he was 13, Brian organized many scouting activities. In an attempt to keep older scouts in the program, he organized a venture crew that was only for scouts fourteen years old and older. Brian was their venture chief. He and his crew backpacked fifty miles from Ithaca Falls in Vermont to Canada. Upon reaching Canada, Brian was not only pleased with his accomplishment but amazed as he and the other scouts looked down the United States/Canadian border for thirty miles.

The venture crew is not the only way Brian has given back. He gave a month of his summer to work as a lifeguard at a Boy Scout summer camp. Certified in First Aid, CPR, and basic life support, Brian was well qualified for the job. Brian has no intention of giving up scouting when he attends WPI in the fall. He will continue giving back, and maybe prove to the world that he is not unsung after all.

Kristen Infanger

Kristen Infanger truly is an unsung hero. Along with a challenging workload academically she has been a participant in numerous extracurricular activities. Ever since Kristen became a student at BMHS she has been involved in the athletic program. She has been a member of the softball team all four years the last of which she was a captain. She was also on the basketball team her freshman, sophomore, and junior years. During her sophomore year Kristen became the first female member of the golf team. She not only played golf for the school team but she also competed and placed in several local tournaments. These included fifth place in the 1995 Massachusetts State Tournament and fourth place in the Catholic Youth Organization Tournament.

Ben Clark

A challenging academic workload and an after school job would be enough for the majority of high schoolers. Ben Clark, however, is an exception. Throughout his high school years Ben has spent his free time on the weekends participating in an orchestra and a band.

Since his freshman year he has been a member of the Greater Boston Youth Symphony Orchestra at Boston University. As a member of this group Ben played drums, xylophone, and cymbals every Sunday starting at nine in the morning and ending at six in the evening. During his sophomore year Ben also joined the Massachusetts Youth Wind Ensemble which met at the New England Conservatory from five to nine. His involvement in these groups has allowed Ben to perform at venues in Finland, Sweden, and Japan.

Along with his dedication to music Ben helped to set up the BMHS home page on the internet. After learning of all these accomplishments it's easy to see why Ben Clark is an unsung hero.

Sue Tighe

Does she ever sleep? Between her job at Bradlees and schoolwork, Sue Tighe hardly finds time to. After a vigorous day at BMHS, Sue would head to Bradlees where she often worked 35 hours a week. After returning from Bradlees late at night, Sue would do her homework until 2 am, and she often got up a few hours later to finish it. Despite working many hours at Bradlees, Sue managed to get all of her work done and done well. She is a member of the National Honor Society. She is also an editor of the school's newspaper, the Billerica Beat. Sue has also given up much of her time, during school and the summer, to work on the class of '96's yearbook. In between all of this, she volunteered her time during the summer, a time which is meant for relaxing, to work with patients at Lahey Clinic. Sue also taught a second grade CCD class at St. Theresa's parish. Because of her outstanding efforts to reach her class, Sue won an award at the St. Theresa's annual recognition dinner.

Verity Colon

She's been recruited to cheer at the Univer sity of Massachusetts at Amherst, but how did she get there? To Verity Colon, gymnastics and cheering have been an important part of her life since she was twelve years old. For her work in gymnastics, Verity won the Sun Star Honorable Mention. She cheered at the Shawsheen Tech for several years before coming to BMHS where she continued to pursue her dreams. Verity's pursuit of becoming a great cheerleader landed her a place on UMass Amherst's team, but she had to overcome many obstacles to get there. Verity came in first at the New England regionals and went on to participate in New York. There she placed fourth and went on to South Carolina. In South Carolina, Verity became a national finalist. Because of her hard work and determination, Verity Colon achieved her ultimate goal, she was recruited by UMass Amherst.

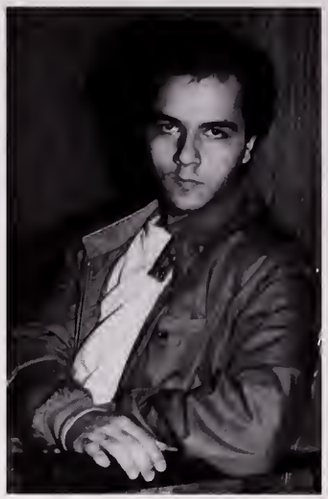
Meredith Moore

If you need some thing done, ask a busy person. That old saying applies to Meredith Moore, who has been an extremely busy individual throughout her high school years. Aside from working nearly forty hours a week at Dupont-Merck, she has still found time for her school work and put in countless hours volunteering for the AIDS Action Committee. For the past two years, her activites there have included the AIDS Danceathon and the AIDS Walkathon. In spite of her hectic schedule, she maintains close friendships and plans to be married soon.



Amir Mahalati

Picture this, you're in a strange place where they speak a strange language, have strange customs, and you're alone. Six years ago Amir Mahalati moved to this country from Iran, but seems to have adjusted to life here extremely well. For the past five years, he has taken piano lessons at the New England Conservatory of Music where he studies music theory, composition, and performance. Amir has also composed five of his own classical pieces. His plans for the future include studying physics at either Northeastern or UMass.

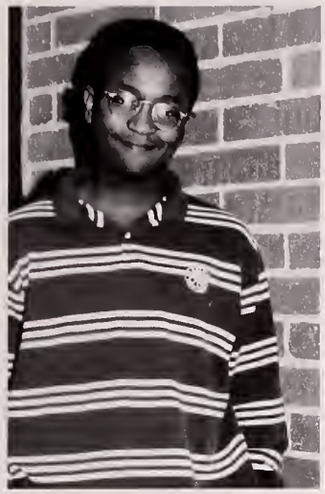
Ed Kiprono



Imagine what it would be like to move across the country to a new town during high school, leaving behind every thing that you had become familiar with. You can't, right? If you think this move sounds horrifying, put yourself in the shoes of Ed Kiprono, who moved to Billerica during his sophomore year. Ed did not move merely from another state but from another country.

Before moving to Billerica, Ed had been born and grew up in Kenya. The move was not tot horrible for Ed, however. As much of a culture shock as the change must have been, Ed adapted to life in the U.S. very easily. He found the people from Billerica very friendly. After coming to B.M.H.S., he persued his love of sports by joining the varsity soccer and track teams.

Ed's experiences in hisnew hometown were not always positive. During his junior year of high school, Ed's house was severly damaged in an electrical fire. As a result, Ed occasionally had to run many miles after practice to his temporary home in Lowell, when no one was available to drive him home.

His ability to maintain a positive attitude allowed him to be a successful student and athlete. He became an integral member of the track team in his distance running, while rooting on his teammates. He was able to keep up his grades and is continuing on to higher education.

Bethann Doherty

The girls high school sea son officially began in early September, but this was months after it really began for its captains Bethann Doherty and Tina Carrabba. These two athletes had already been hard at work meeting with the coach, calling players, organizing captain practices, and playing summer league games with the girls to get a head start on playing together as a team.

For Bethann Doherty, soccer was a way of life. Playing since she was a little girl, being named a captain her senior Œyear in high school was an honor. She had worked hard during her first three years of high school and and her last season was to top it all off. When the soccer team began their season, the girls were victorious.

Bethann's season was cut short, however, when early into the first half of a game she suffered an injury to her knee. At first it appeared to be only temporary, but she sooned learned it wasn't. Bethann was out for the season with a ligament tear.

During her injury, Bethann was still there to encourage the other players, as hard as it was for her to be on the sidelines. She brought spirit along with her to every game and was there for her team through their devastating losses and triumphant wins.

Mentors, Motivators, Friends

While some students leave the classroom having learned simply facts and figures, others leave with much more. They leave knowing that they have finally grasped a concept that they once thought was beyond their reach, their minds swimming with new thoughts and ideas, or having a new sense of direction for their future. These students have received a gift from their mentors, friends, and motivators—their teachers.

Most teachers fulfill their basic duties expected of them, but it takes a special teacher to go the extra mile. These exceptional people take the extra moment after class to give a student the personal attention he needs to be sure he understands the lesson. They make themselves available to us when we need advice, a critical opinion, or a sympathetic listener. They see the potential in all of us and try to show us what we are capable of.

These extraordinary people have a lasting impact on us even after we have left the classroom and gone on to pursue other dreams. The lessons that they have taught us will remain in our hearts and minds forever. When we think back to our years in high school, we will reminisce with fondness of these inspiring educators who extended their hearts and were willing to sacrifice themselves to make us the people who we are today. Thank you for the gifts you have given us.

Ms. Biagiotti

Every student will tell you that any one of Ms. Biagiotti's classes could be a challenge. In fact, many had thoughts of running down to guidance after their first class. However, she rarely allowed students to drop down. She was convinced that if they gave their best effort the class wouldn't seem so bad after all.

She was always willing to answer your questions and explain a problem until you had a complete understanding of it, even if it meant using every available space on all three blackboards to do it. Her tests and quizzes were legendary. Most of the class claimed that it was impossible to finish them in only one period. To finish one of her tests and feel that you had done well was a great feeling considering the majority of her students had to work hard for the grade that they had received.

She's a teacher who challenges her students to try harder and push themselves to do their best. This characteristic, which is present in all of her classes, gives her students confidence and self-esteem not only in math but in every aspect of their learning ability.

It is clear for anyone to see that Mr. LoDuca is a man who loves to teach. Many of us who had him for our Freshman Biology class have memories of dissecting worms, tests with questions that required deductive reasoning, to our dismay, instead of memorization, and, of course, the ruler trick.

Although his classes were sometimes challenging, most agree that they learned a great deal during their time with him. In class he was a teacher who insisted that his students ask questions. Always ready with his standard reply-"I have an answer!"

Even after our time with him was done he still held an interest in our lives. Always asking how current classes were going, more than willing to do a college recommendation, and forever curious about our future plans.

He was well liked by our class not only because of his personality but the way in which he treated students with dignity and respect. Mr. LoDuca made a difference in the lives of the students who walked the halls of BMHS.

It appears to be a typical classroom. There are chalkboards at the front of the room, a large teacher's desk, and rows of desks for students. But, looks can be deceiving. Anyone who has had Mrs. Petullo for a teacher can tell you that the minute you cross her doorway you enter a whole new world. In this world chalk flies, words come alive, and it's a good thing when the teacher shouts.

Mrs. Petullo makes you want to learn. No matter how much you resist, you are drawn into her world. Textbooks and note taking are not the most important aspects of her class. In order to survive in Petullo's World, you must be able to think for yourself and voice your opinions. She inspires you to take your knowledge to the next level.

Most people think of Mrs. Petullo as the hallway tyrant. The big voice that comes from a little person and rings through the halls at the sound of the bell. "Get to homeroom!" "Get to class!" However, to the students that she taught, Mrs. Petullo's hard exterior is not an accurate representation of her. She is the person who congratulates you on your test grades, or stays after school to help you improve. Whether it's talking about The Great Gatsby or discussing the day's events, she always has time to listen and give her advice.

Most people think of Most Congenial Teacher when they think of Mrs. Molloy, but to those who have been lucky enough to know her she is much more than that. She is always willing to help anyone with anything; school-related or life-related.

She is always there after school as a friend, to give you honest advice. In her eyes, one student is just as important as the next.

The understanding eyes, the sympathetic smile, and her trademark tears. Mrs. Molloy brings reality into the classroom and that is exactly what we needed.

Call him the Pigman, the FlyKeeper, or whatever other name rolls off one's tongue when angry. They all refer to one man, Mr. Jack Flynn. The man was a part of almost every student's life at Billerica Memorial High School. He not only works as the yearbook advisor and teacher, but he teaches night school, advises REMS2, and dedicates afternoons and evenings helping (torturing) advanced biology and Anatomy and Physiology students. In fact, his home address might be listed as 35 River Street, room 3341.

Mr. Flynn, one of BMHS's most valuable assets, can make a sad student laugh and a strong student cry. He has a teaching style all of his own. He can throw a ton of information upon you, whether it be the internal workings of a pig or the inner workings of a cell. Although tough inside the classroom, outside the classroom Mr. Flynn was a friend to many.

Mr. Flynn is the reason why many of the class of '96 are entering college as biology majors. He has taught us that biology can be fun even though at times it can be frustrating. He has also taught us not to turn our backs and run when things just don't work. Mr. Flynn made us work hard after school and during school so we could fight our way through.

If you ever walked into Mr. McDermott's classroom , you would hear much argument. After listening in on the discussion for a moment, you would realize what you are actually hearing are opinions being challenged, beliefs being questioned, and ideas being exchanged. Amidst this chaotic atmosphere stands Mr. McDermott orchestrating the conversation to new ideas that his students had never considered before. He presents situations that force them to think twice about concepts and beliefs that they had assumed to be true. When the bell rings and they leave the room, their minds spin as they try to sort and comprehend what they have learned about the world and themselves.

Not everyone leaves however. A few remain behind to speak individually with Mr. McDermott about various questions, comments, or questions they may have. One person may need some constructive criticism on their college essay while another may seek advice regarding a personal decision. Mr. McDermott gives each student his undivided attention for a s long as they need, oftentimes sacrificing his lunch or free time to ensure that their questions are answered or their problems are solved. Although they may not always be happy with his responses, you can be sure that he gives them something to think about.

Mrs. Winchell

While many students attend the concerts and watch the football game halftime shows, very few people realize the amount of time and effort put in by the band prior to their performances. During school, after school, and on weekends the musicians stand in freezing temperatures in the student parking lot playing the same music over and over again until every note is played perfectly. Before these numb, exhausted band members stand their nemesis and inspiration—Mrs. Winchell.

Having been on both sides of the podium as a former BMHS band student and now conductor of the concert band and director of the marching band, Mrs. Winchell has lived and breathed band all her life. She knows what it takes to get the most out of her students. She has been known to rant and rave and make flamboyant gestures in attempt to motivate the musicians, always willing to embarrass herself if it means an improvement is made—and it always is.

Her passion for music is instilled in her students through her high expectations. Mrs. Winchell demands nothing but perfection from her students. The self-confidence, self-motivation, and self-discipline that she has taught are lessons that will be used throughout their lives. She is truly an inspiration to all that sit in her band.

FALL SPORTS

Billerica athletes reach for the stars!

School begins, practice starts, and Billerica High athletes get set for another season of reaching for their anticipated goals. They can be seen stretching for that long pass, leaping for that volleyball spike, and raising their arms in victory after that winning race, swim, putt, or goal. The fall is reminiscent of the encouraging shouts from the cheerleaders and the resounding call of the band. It stirs our first memories of spirited competition, unending practices, and opportunity for a fresh start, a new beginning and a chance to reach for the stars, yet again.

Going For the Spike

The first day the newly formed BMHS girls varsity volleyball team practiced together, they vowed to be MVC champs. Coming off a 9-11 season, this feat seemed a little difficult. Not to them, however. They practiced hard, they played hard, they won, they lost...they didn't have the confidence. Then standing at 2-2, they pulled together and went on a 13 game win streak, including a huge victory at Chelmsford High to end the season. They became MVC tri-champs (with Chelmsford and Dracut) and competed in the state tournament.

Leading the way for the Indians were senior co-captains Veronica Mulholland and Kristina Morey, who along with junior Kelly Barker were nominated to the MVC All-Conference team. Mulholland was named MVC player of the year. Senior Tina Trider shut down the opposition earning all-star recognition, while Anne Burke and Heather Gadourey attacked on offense and aced serves.

Victory Lap at MVC Meet

The 1995 Billerica Swimming and Diving Team won its first championship in years in the newly realigned MVC small school league. A win at the MVC meet, which was hosted by Billerica, cinched the title. Other highlights included wins over rivals Dracut and Notre Dame.

The team will lose a number of its members to graduation, including captains Laura Bernardo, Meighan McNulty, Karen Morrison, and Lesley Pacheco as well as Andrea DeStefano, Dawn Dellanno, Erin Hinchey, Chenoa Lencewicz, Erynn Weadick, Amy Warren, Cheri Colantuoni, and manager Carrie-Anne DeDeo.

Indians Reach Their Goal

The boys soccer team had a rebuilding season this year, considering the loss of so many of their key players the year before. With only four seniors, and the new Coach Mara, the young team played many close, hard games despite their five, eleven and two record. Led by senior co-captains Bobby Nestor and Shawn Howe and seniors Ed Kiprono and Chris Manchester the team rallied through many a game, and with dedication and perseverance the team came up with huge victories against Chelmsford and Central Catholic.

Charging the Net

The girls soccer team continued with tradition by having yet another winning season, ending their regular season with a record of 15-1-2. The team, led by senior co-captains Bethann Doherty and Tina Carrabba began the season strong and suffered only one tough loss to Andover. This loss was repaid later in the season with what was undoubtedly their best game of the year.

After finishing their regular season, the team still had the state tournament to look forward to. They continued to play hard and plowed through until they suffered a tough loss in the semi-finals.

The success of the season was not based on one person, but on the team as a whole. Seniors Kristin Doneski and Jill DeSilva held up a strong defense. Carmen Umana and Tara Martarella controlled the middle of the field, and Tracey Warren, Debbie Teixeira and Kim Fries played well wherever they were needed. Throughout their four years the seniors always had a winning record and hope that the teams in the years to come follow their lead.

Tackling the Opponent

The Billerica High football team had a remarkable season. The Indians topped off an 8-2 season with a dominating 27-6 victory over Chelmsford on Thanksgiving Day. This victory sealed the Indians' second-place finish in the strong Merrimack Valley conference.

This year's team's biggest asset was its seniors. Led by captains Peter Calabrese, Garret McKinnon, and Rich McKenna, the Indians had one of their most successful seasons in recent memory and set a standard for future teams to strive for.

Psyching Up the Crowd

Through hard work and determination, the Football Cheerleading team ended with a commendable season. Finishing runner-up in the Woburn Invitational and 6th in the Northeastern Massachusetts regional competition, we proved to ourselves, as well as to our school, that cheerleading is an athletic sport that comes with its rewards, but also injuries. We suffered many times this season but, we still pulled through on top. This earned us the respect that we deserve as athletes.

It shows everyone that we're not just faces on the sidelines at football games, we cheer on the team as well as our own, and we love it. It's one spirit that keeps everyone going, by psyching up the crowd and that's what it's all about.

To Tame the Perilous Skies

The Billerica High School Marching Band and Silver Jade Color Guard swept the East Coast by storm, wreaking victory in its path. It was a very wet season for the band, which took to the field even in the middle of torrential rains and during winds. Knee deep in mud, they scored a 93.2 in East Lyme, CT, on only their second time out.

Competing in Division III even though they had only 49 musicians (normally a band with less than 50 musicians would compete in Division II), the band took second place in Eastern Marching Band Association finals, bringing home the Massachusetts State Championship, as well as awards for best woodwinds, best bass, best music, best marching, and best field directors. They scored a 95.05 of a possible 100.

Under the leadership of drum line captain, senior Daryl Romkey, junior Color- guard captains Teresa Romkey and Cheryl Wohl, field director junior Karen Fallon and associate field director senior Will Jennings, the band traveled to Florida, winning the class A Citrus Bowl Music Festival Field Show Championship. Seniors leaving the band include Jason Verdolino, soloist Matt Joyce, Marci King, Daryl Romkey, Will Jennings, Katie Fanning, Meredith Tebbetts, and soloist Brian Douglas.

Going the Distance

The Billerica Boys Cross-Country team finished its season with a 4-4-1 record. The team also ran well in the bigger area meets, finishing second at the Lincoln Sudbury Invitational and fourth at the Bay State Invitational. The Indians also fared well at the State Class meet held at Franklin Park.

The highlight of the season came when the Indians beat Chelmsford for the second straight year, 26-29. The team also had big victories over: Lawrence, Dracut, and Methuen. Senior Adam Manoli led the harries by completing his career with 24 consecutive victories as well as being named the Merrimack Valley Conference's Most Outstanding Runner for the second time.

The team was led by senior co-captains, Adam Manoli and Kevin McDermott. Seniors Aaron Donchin, Colin Trant, Joe Bly, Greg O'Brien, and Nitin Gupta also made strong contributions throughout the year.

Going the Extra Mile

We began early in July on a warm Tuesday morning. We started out with a close knit group of nine returning runners. We soon grew into a team of twenty-four good friends. As the only sophomore Nicole Lamar represented her class well as a Merrimack Valley Conference all star. Freshmen Candice Lamar and senior captain Melissa Thomas were also named all stars. These three also led the team in many tough wins including Lowell and Methuen.

We would also like to specially thank seniors Deanna Vinciguerra and Renee Grasso. They were always trying to be their best, but always stopped to help anyone that needed it. Without their help and support, the success of our season would not have been possible.

Driving Away the Competition

This season the golf team got off to a rough start by going 1-3-1, but by the end of the season our record was a respectable 6-8-2.

However, there were some close moments when things were looking up for us. The entire season rested on one of our final games against Central. A win would have put us in the state finals. Although we lost, it was a great effort by everyone.

There were two new comers to the team this year. Senior Matt Salemme and freshman Sean Trembly. Both played great all season. Also playing well for the Indians were senior co-captain Jason Murphy and junior co-captain Ryan Anderson.

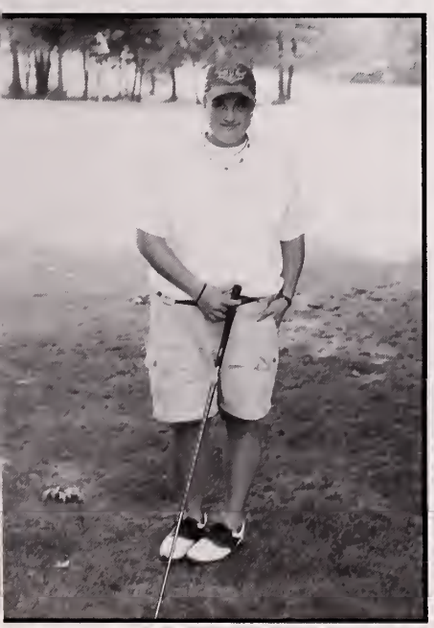
Fall: A Season of Sport



WINTER SPORTS

Athletes shoot for the moon!

Snow begins to pile up, the days finally start to get longer, and our athletes take their talents indoors. This is the season in which our Billerica stars slam dunk, cheer, vault, hurdle, wrestle, and skate their way to many winning seasons.

Our stars showed their true glory in a variety of settings: the sweaty gym the chilly rink, the dusty mat, and the gritty track. This was the season of thunderous Applause by the fans, long bus trips, state tournaments, and many hours of unnoticed Practice and dedication. Yet in the winter months we quietly did the job; we all shined on.

Billerica Mat Men Set New Records

The wrestling team finished another season with records, both individually and as a whole. Led by senior captains Brian Pellegrino, Mike Hillis, Jeff Oliver, and Neil Thompson, the Indians worked hard and competed in many tough matches. The individual successes many members of the team achieved helped to contribute to the team as a whole. Jeff Oliver capped off a great season, becoming Sectional and State Champion to go 36-1 and to be ranked third in the Northeast.

Neil Thompson went far to be ranked fourth in the state, as did Mike Hillis who was ranked sixth. Dave Mansfield went on to be fifth in the sectionals. Ralph Albrecht and Steve Adams also competed well in their weight class. Unfortunately, Brian Pellegrino was injured during the last match and was unable to continue his great season into the states.

The team also had many strong underclassmen who added to the team, including Ike Thorpe and Matt Carson who both continued into the state tournament.

Tumble for the win!

This Billerica team had it's best season in years by placing third overall in the MVC with a record of 6-2. This team also made the sectional meet for the first time since the early 1970's and finished an impressive 6th place with a total score of 124.45.

This team was led by senior Co-Captains Robin Porter and Kristen Wiitala and senior Verity Colon. Other standouts included sophomore Jackie Renoni and freshman Amanda Garner, who both qualified for the state individual meet. This team set another school record with a team total score of 130.40 against Wilmington. Miles of smiles, we'll never forget you Verity!

Girls Basketball

The Girls Varsity Basketball team started out their year as just a group of girls, having only three seniors to look up to. They ended the year going 10-11 and making it to the states. Despite losing the first three games to three of the toughest teams in the state, and four of the next seven, the girls finished the season by winning seven out of ten games to even their record at 10-10. Going into the last game against Chelmsford, the team was 9-10 and needed to win to qualify for the state tournament. Co-captains Tina Trider and Meredith Tebbetts, and senior Kristin Doneski were honored by Senior Appreciation Day, which proved to be the motivation that the girls needed. They won the game 65-57, as a result of Tina Trider's strong play and enthusiastic leadership. Unfortunately for the Lady Indians, they drew Methuen in the first round of the states, forcing them to bow out early. The team had a Merrimack Valley All Conference player in junior Kelly Barker, who reached the 1,000 point mark late in the season. They also had three All-Stars- senior Tina Trider, junior Jackie MacLean, and freshman Kristen Tebbetts. The entire team worked hard and progressed throughout the season, and the teams in the future look to be improving because of the dedication and leadership that the class of 1996 provided.

Boys Basketball

The 1995-96 boys varsity basketball team strived toward its best season in three years, posing an 11-10 overall record and a 7-6 league record. The team qualified for the state tournament for the fourth straight year, where it lost a tough game to Malden Catholic.

The season was highlighted by several great victories, two of which came at the free throw line. Justin Connors sank two from the line with seven seconds remaining to lift the Indians over Dracut. And Kevin McDermott converted on four consecutive free throws with time running out to beat rival Chelmsford. The tribe also scored wins against Lowell, Tewksbury, Somerville, Concord Carlisle, and Wayland.

The Indians were led by co-captains Robert Marino and Kevin McDermott. The team was also helped by the strong senior efforts of Justin Connors, Tim Boutin, and Billy Rochefort. Several juniors made important contributions to the team, they included: Jay Norton, Mike Rouine, Nick Fitzgerald, Jawad Ashan, Scott Mara, Tony Rauseo, and Bernie Layon.

Cheering the team to victory

This year's winter cheerleading squad had five returning girls: senior captain Maria Picardi, junior captain Kerri O'Donnell, junior captain Andrea Mario, and juniors Erin Campbell and Sandy Fletcher. The girls combined with nine others and became a squad. They started out very early to achieve their goals. They went away to camp for a week in August, and proceeded to practice throughout the season. The squad stood by the boys varsity basketball team through every win and loss, and followed them to the playoffs in early March.

Billerica Ice-Breakers Score in Season of Surprises

The 1995-96 hockey team had an inspirational season. Leading the team was Captain G. J. Tremblay and Assistant Captain David Boutiette. However, all seniors on this team were pillars of stability including: Brendan Powderly, Greg Tsoukalas, Mike Venezia, and Bill Ranucci. One high point of the roller coaster season was winning the most prestigious Christmas tournament in the state; the Arlington Invitational. Scott Yavarow had a solid year in the net and the goal scoring of Bob Rumley and freshman Tim Calabro exceeded all expectations. To end theseason, the team made a run through the tournament which nobody expected. However, the run was cut short by an overtime heartbreaker, which stopped this team, one game short of the Fleet Center. Their efforts, however, will not be forgotten by their dedicated and enthusiastic fans.

In the Lap of Victory

Making a move from small school to large school in the MVC was rough for the girls winter track team. Led by tri-captains Kristina Morey, Lyn-Marie Murphy, and Cassandra Thornton the girls had a successful season. Senior squad members led the way. Captain Thornton was sensational shattering record after record and setting the league record in her first competition this season. She was also named to the MVC all-conference team. Whether in the 300 or in the 50, Captain Murphy bulleted past the opposition and joined Thornton to run the 4x200 to a fourth place finish in the state. Mile after mile, Captain Morey sliced minute after minute off her time as she continued to destroy other squads. Morey, selected as a member of the all-star team, led her 4x800 team to be one of the best in the state. Senior Jenn McCoy hurdled her way to the state level gaining point after point for the Billerica team. Sprint ace Colleen Lynch, whether flying in the 50 or clearing the hurdles, was outstanding as well.

"Pain is temporary, pride is forever."

Those are the words that they boys track team fought by this indoor track season. Their 2-6 record does not reflect their incredible will to keep on fighting and gaining respect in the MVC Large School Division. They never gave up despite their unfortunate losses due to injuries and illnesses. Led by captains Adam Manoli, John Shannon, and Ed Kiprono, the Indians attacked every meet aggressively. Adam Manoli led the distance team on training runs through the snow, while other teams were at home drinking hot chocolate. John Shannon led the shot putters, himself regularly placing. Seniors Nitin Gupta, Dwayne Eidens, and Aaron Donchin contributed highly to the team, not only in scoring but with their leadership. Nitin Gupta and Aaron Donchin dominated the mile for the Indians, while also running other distance events, from the 4x400 to the two-mile. Dwayne Eidens conquered the opposition in the hurdles, contributing major points for the team.

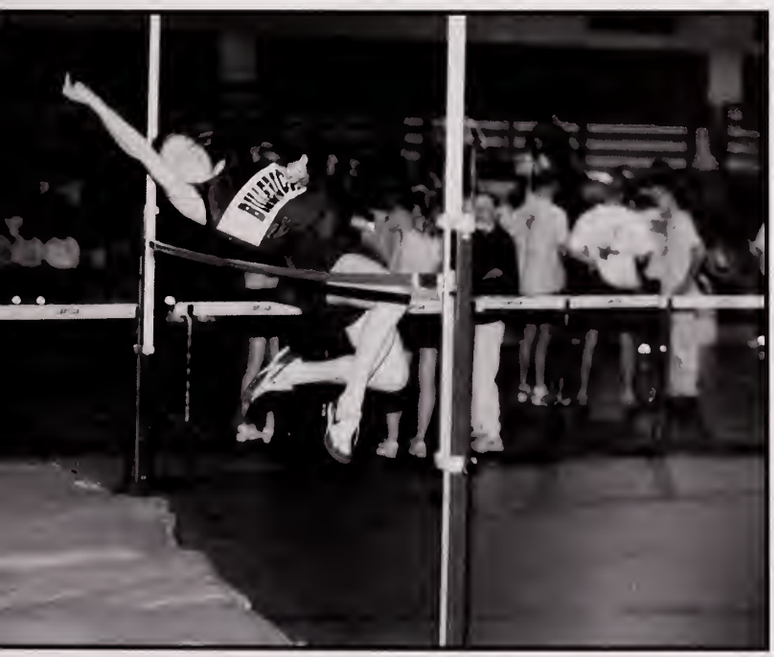
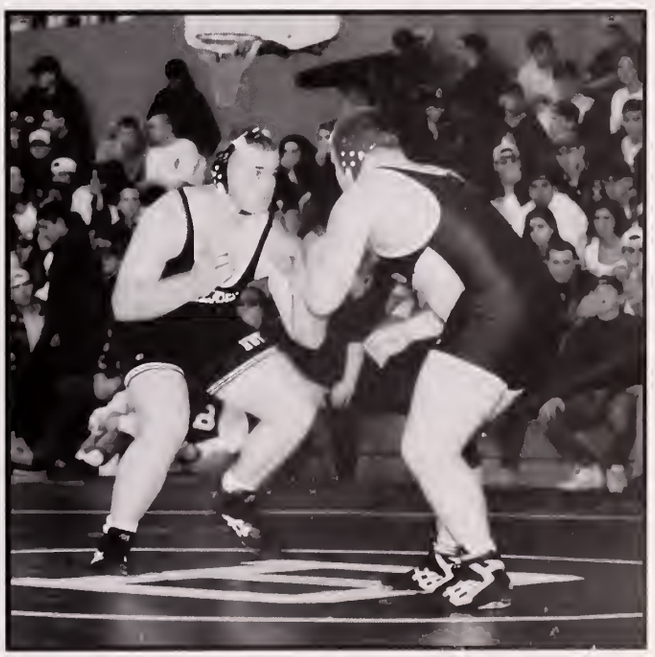
Winter: A season of Sport





SPRING SPORTS

Athletes claim their place in the sun

It's spring again! The snow has finally melted. The flowers are finally in bloom. And athletes step outside again. Disciplined bodies glide through the warm, fresh air with relative ease. And spheres of all sizes are hurled, thrown, hit, and pitched into various mitts, sticks, nets, and rackets.

In the spring, our sports stars reach for the top for that last time. They strive for the blooming ace, the clutch basehit, the hard-earned goal, the all-time best, and the sacred spike. New milestones are set and old records are broken during the springtime. It is a time of renewal; everything seems possible during this season. In the spring, our stars hit full stride, achieve their best, and of course, soar above the moon and the sun.

Rounding third and sliding into home

Under the direction of Coach of the Year, Patty Higgins, and the leadership of Co-captains Kristen Infanger and Kristina Morey, the Girls Varsity Softball team's experience and confidence led them to an MVC title and a chance at the state title. This year's team played each game together and with each win, they climbed the floors to victory. Highlights over the season included close victories over Dracut 6-5, Andover 2-1, and Lowell 3-1.

This team will lose several seniors who have been key over the years. The talents of Heather Gadourey's pitching and infield and outfield standouts Kristina Morey, Kristen Infanger and Kristen Wiitala, demonstrated the spirit and teamwork of lady indian softball. Also junior Jennifer McBride remained a key both on the mound and at the plate being named MVC's Most Valuable Player.

Although Billerica had been defeated 1-0 in overtime in the third round of the states by Woburn, we all knew that sometimes the better team doesn't always win. With quality under classmen remaining on varsity and upcoming talent from the freshmen and JV teams, BMHS Girls Softball is not far away from winning a state title.

Cradling the ball away from the opponent

The Girls Varsity Lacrosse team, led by Captains Nancy Campbell, Amy Miller, Colleen Lynch, and Jill Waters, ended their second varsity season with a remarkable record of 5-8-1.

All-Stars for the league were Maureen Battcock, Renee Grasso, and Jill Waters.

Goalie Veronica Mulholland holds the school record with a 59.3% save rate.

Other seniors, Katie Fanning, Karen Spencer, who received the Coach's Award, and Maria Pacardi, who received the Good Sportsmanship Award, had an outstanding season. Good Luck to next year's team.

Running down the field toward an open net

The 1996 Billerica High Lacrosse team had a great year. Our record for the year was 11 and 6. The team was led by senior captains Brendan Powderly, Ryan Reitano, Mike Parker, and Brian Glavin. Other seniors that helped lead the team were Dave Mansfield and Mark Presti. We made the tournament and came in second place in the North League. We did so well this year because we were able to work as a team and not as individuals. We want to thank all of our supporters, friends, family, team members, and Coach Connolly.

Blocking the competition

The boys volleyball team, led by seniors Mike Hillis (captain, league all-star), Aaron Donchin (captain, league all star), Dwayne Eidens, and Romeo Collado, finished the season with a record of 14-6 and made it to the first round of the state tournament. Junior, All-Scholastic Nick Fitzgerald led the team with over 150 kills from his position at middle front. Junior All-Scholastic setter Brian Mahoney contributed by having over 300 assists.

The season started off on the wrong foot with a loss to Methuen, but Billerica got into the swing of things and chalked up many consecutive wins. Their most impressive win was against Newton South. Newton South was second in their league and in their eyes was supposed to romp Billerica. Billerica led coming out of the gates and never looked back. They were 14-6 by the end of the season and were tournament bound. They were set to play their arch rival, St. John's Prep. Billerica had played them twice before during the season, but were unable to beat them. Unfortunately, the Billerica volleyball team was unable to pull one out in the post-season leaving St. John's the victor.

The BIllerica girls spring track team has a successful season this year. The team was led by four co-captains, Jennifer McCoy, Lyn-Marie Murphy, Cassandra Thornton, and Deanna Vinciguerra. Lyn-Marie Murphy ran her best time at the state meet with a time of 13.1 for the 100-m dash. Jennifer McCoy contributed to the team as well with her natural talent in the hurdling event. Deanna Vinciguerra had many successful distance runs. Cassandra Thornton shined throughout the season which was displayed by her performance at the state meet.

Also contributing to the team this year were many star competitors, such as Nicole Ouellette, Nicole Lamar, Candice Lamar, Wendy Boudreau, Deirdre Lorway, and Jen Shaffer.

The combined efforts of the team and the coaches led them to another great season. Head coach Daniel Murphy, with the help of assistant coaches Lori Ann Buterbaugh, Gus Silva, Bob Loranger, and Peter Flynn guided the team to another great season.

Chasing down the competition

This season the boys track team moved up from the MVC Small School Division to the MVC Large School Divisio This was a difficult transition for the team, but with senior captains Adam Manoli, Nitin Gupta, and John Shann leading the way, the team continued to train and compete hard all season. Adam Manoli continued to crush t competition in the two mile and the 800 while also running the 330 hurdles. John Shannon dominated the fiel throwing the shot put and the discus. Nitin Gupta led the way in the mile, regularly placing, while also running t 800 and occasionally a leg in the 4x400 relay. All three senior captains helped this young team to improve in all the events. While giving their time to the other teammates, they continued to work and compete hard and qualify f the state class meet. With not many returning seniors, many juniors and sophomores stepped up to fill the gaps. Ph Levesque continued to prevail in the 100 and 200 while helping to lead the sprinters. Peter Gonsalves, Mike Boz and Rob Sparkes all competed hard in the distance events. Bill Faria led the way for Billerica in the pole vaultin Cullen Hagan was undefeated in the 400 and the 800 and Ben Davis was Billerica's primary hurdler.

Throughout this season many of the athletes made vast improvements. Many athletes from this young team qualifie for states, including Adam Manoli, John Shannon, Nitin Gupta, Phil Levesque, Peter Gonsalves, Bill Faria, Culle Hagan, and Ben Davis. The strives the team made this year are not properly reflected in the record, but will be seen the spirit and performance of the team for years to come.

An ace down the middle for the win!

This year's 1996 Boys Tennis team had its sights set on one goal — to reach the state tournament. That goal was achieved in the last match of the regular season. Led by captains Kevin Matheson and Jeff Bass, the boys team saw a year where they were not a "bottom of the barrel" team, but one that was thought to be a real competitor in the MVC. Kevin Matheson and Jeff Bass played in the number one and two while Kevin's brother Brian, a junior, played effectively in the third singles spot.

The top tandem of Bryan Ly and Todd Suggesse were the consistant points for the team. Rounding out the second double spots were Rajiv Motwani, David Nardone, Darren Bridge, and Robby Severo. Also contributing in the third singles position was Christopher "Chuck" Norris. His leadership on and off the court weighed heavily in the state tournament season.

A Thousand Points of Light

The lights at B.M.H.S. don't dim at 2:15. There are night labs, evening classes, concert and drama rehearsals, French club dinners, newspaper and Amanuensis deadlines, science meets and even band weekends. Some kids -a lot of them- seem to live here a good part of the time. If high school were just the equivalent of a nine to five job, those years would be a dim memory for most. Instead, our school is a beacon of light in our community. Many seniors have seen the sunrise and the moon rise over the hockey rink. Last one out, turn off the lights.

Student Government Day Representative: Kevin McDermott

The 1995-1996 Student government team scored a major victory this school year. Armed with research and statistics into the practices of other schools, student government proposed that seniors with certain grade and attendence qualifications be exempt from final exams. Mike Farrell, working with president Nitin Gupta, made a cogent presentation to the faculty and after much debating the plan was accepted on a trial basis.

DECA began during our junior year with only four members. However, with the hard work of advisors Mr. Robinson, and Mrs. Boulette as well as the members, DECA grew into something that shone our senior year, with a membership of close to 20.

Members of DECA took part in business competitions against other schools in our district. To begin, the preliminary round consisted of a written exam and a roll play. If the contestant successfully made the top 7 in his/her category, then they went on to the states where they underwent 2 written exams as well as 3 roll plays. Needless to say, many of the Billerica members were successful; winning the school many trophies and some members even went all the way to the nationals in Florida.

The class of '96 has come a long way in a year, and we hope that the underclassmen will continue to participate and carry on the BMHS name on the growing DECA program.

The 1996 Amanuensis, B.M.H.S.'s award-winning literary magazine, was a triumphant blend of creativity, technology, and hard work. Under the advisorship of Ms. Breen and Ms. Luciano, the staff presented on sixty-six pages the literary and artistic work of sixty-six contributors. The magazine, in its ninth year of production, was published totally in-house. Its theme, America, celebrated life in the United States, the dream and the reality, and featured several pages devoted to Billerica's own hometown festival-Yankee Doodle Weekend.

SOUTH PACIFIC

Seniors in the spotlight!

This year's musical, Rodgers, and Hammerstein's "South Pacific," was the 25th in Billerica Memorial High School's history. It starred seniors Karen Morrison (as Nellie Forbush), Michael Farrell (as Emile deBecque), Chris Marshall (as Luther Billis), Brian Morgan (as Commander Harbison), Cindy Robert (as Lait), Bob Antonelli (as Captain Brackett), and sophomores Neil Crimmins (as Lt. Joseph Cable), and Shonna McEachern (as Bloody Mary). "South Pacific" holds the distinction of having the most tickets sold in the school musical's 25 year history (the show was sold out and several rows of folding chairs were provided for all three nights).

Director Susanne Robertson and Assistant Director Jeff Gage did an outstanding job of putting the show together. The scenery was equally amazing, and included an on-stage shower which really worked and a pagoda that looked like something out of a plantation. And the costumes, designed by Janet Lyna, were superb (Chris Marshall's coconut bra is something that will probably be remembered for a long, long time).

Other seniors included Jeffrey Bedrick (as the Professor), Stephen Brown (as Sgt. O'Brien), Alexandra Nicholas-Chartillange (as Henrietta), Carrie-Anne DeDeo (as Janet MacGregor), Heather Fero (as Bloody Mary's Assistant), Elizabeth Hogan (as Bessie), Suzanne January (as a Nurse/French girl/dancer), William Jennings (as Yeoman Quayle), Matthew Joyce (as Lt. Buzz Adams), Kelley LeDeoux (as a French girl), Karen McGill (as Dinah Murphy), and Laura Misenor (as a Nurse/French girl/dancer).

SENIOR EVENTS

The Class of 1996 in the spotlight

The seniors take their place center stage for the finale of their high school performance. It is their best work to date, incorporating all the elements of good theater. It has pathos (I can't make my graduation cap stay on!), excitement (Yes! A hole -in-one in miniature golf!), a critical climax (Will I fit into my prom dress?), an resolution (I can't believe I'm holdin my diploma!).

Now we move toward the footlight and take our bows with a mixture o goofy delight and somber dignity. Bu give us one last moment in the spotlight We're ready, at last, for our closeup!

SENIOR PROM

Dancing in the Moonlight!

On Thursday evening, May 30, 1996, the senior class gathered together for one last big bash before graduation. The celebration began as numerous black and white limousines drove into the parking lot of the Danversport Yacht Club. It was time to have fun and make memories. Nothing could dampen our spirits, not even gray skies and rainy weather. As people crossed the floor to the buffet table, we were treated to a spectacular showing of everyone's glamorous dresses and tuxes. Every possible style was present , from black satin to red sequin, high heels to sneakers.

As couples danced to the prom song, "We've Got Tonight," by Bob Seger, our chaperones and special guests made the selections for the prom court, with Steve Baia and Jen McCoy chosen as king and queen. Strolling outside was perfect for catching our breath between dances. The harbor setting provided us with a breathtaking view of boats and water. The hours flew by, and before we knew it, our night of fun, laughter, and friendship was coming to an end. It was truly a night to remember.

CLASS DAY

Good day sunshine

With the prom over and graduation closer than ever, the class of '96 gathered once again for a day of fun at Cedardale in Groveland, Massachusetts. Once they arrived the students were faced with the tough decision of what to do. Mini-golf, basketball, and swimming were just a few of the choices. On the several tennis courts the games began to get competitive as did the volleyball games which classmates literally played for hours. Friends relaxed together in the jacuzzi and performed their perfect dives into the pool. Ice cream sundaes were provided to add to the excitement of the day. Once again the class contributed to another memorable day in our senior year.

GRADUATION

One brief shining moment!

Graduation: Our final shining moment. The day we thought would never arrive finally swept us away. It was a beautiful day on which Billerica Memorial High School's Class of 1996 paraded in a patchwork of green and white, all the while anxiously anticipating the culmination and celebration of their many achievements.

All of the speakers were eloquent, and the graduates were commended for their excellence in all areas, recognized for their potential for greatness, and encouraged to always "pay attention."

Graduation has always been a time of reflection and remembrance. Yet this ceremony was characterized by the eager spirit of the graduates, their hopes for the future, their impeccable behavior, and by the overwhelming belief that these graduating stars will soon shine in bigger and bluer skies.
